

MARTIN-LUTHER-UNIVERSITÄT
HALLE-WITTENBERG

Moulding Democratic Citizens Democracy and Education in Europe's Twentieth Century

7 November 2019

15:00-15:30 Welcome and Introduction

Daniel Fulda (Halle): Opening address

Till Kössler (Halle) and Phillip Wagner (Halle): Introduction

15:30-17:45 Panel 1: Ambiguities of Postwar Reform: Citizenship and Education in the Interwar Period

Chair: Jens Elberfeld (Halle)

Tiina Kinunen (Oulu): Democracy, Citizenship and Education as Key Concepts in Ellen Key's Vision of Europe

Anne Otto (Halle): "Democratising" the Working-Class Youth? Education and Politics during the Weimar Republic.

Machteld Venken (Brussels): Elite Schools and Citizenship Education in the Interwar Years: the Belgian-German and Polish-German Borderlands Compared.

Refreshments

18:15-19:30 Keynote Lecture

Chair: Phillip Wagner (Halle)

Paweł Karolewski (Wrocław): Caesarean Politics and Dynamics of Citizenship

Dinner

8 November 2019

09:30-11:00 Panel 2: Multiple Reeducations: Post-1945 Europe between Fascism and Democracy

Chair: Till Kössler (Halle)

Lisbeth Matzer (Cologne): Gender and Democracy: Gendered Citizenship Education in Austria's Adult Education since the 1950s

Claudia Gatzka (Freiburg): Teachers of Democracy: The Old Left and Post-Fascist Voters in Italy and West Germany after 1945

Coffee

11:30-13:00 Panel 2 continued

Chair: Till Kössler (Halle)

Florian Heßdörfer (Leipzig): No Partners, no Enemies: Imagining the Democratic Society in West Germany's Postwar Educational Theory

Sonja Levsen (Freiburg): "Une et indivisible": Citizenship Education and the Fear of Division in France, 1945-1980s

Lunch

14:30-16:00 Panel 3: The Many Quests for Postwar Citizenship: Politics and Education in Western Europe after 1945

Chair: Phillip Wagner (Halle)

Zoé Kergomard (Paris): Enforcing a "moral duty" to vote? Citizenship education as a contested answer to the "problem of abstention" in post-war Switzerland (1950s-1980s)

Chris Jeppesen (Cambridge): Locating 'Parent Power' in the History of post-1945 British Secondary Education

Coffee

16:30-18:00 Roundtable on the History of Democracy

Chair: Till Kössler (Halle) / Phillip Wagner (Halle)

Maria Falina (Dublin)

Harm Kaal (Nijmegen)

Hedwig Richter (Hamburg)

Conference Dinner

9 November 2019

09:00-10:30 Panel 4: Visions of a Participatory Citizenship: East and West after 1968

Chair: Pia Eiringhaus (Halle)

Michal Šimáně and Jiří Zounek (Brno): Historical Milestones of the Primary and Secondary Education in Czechoslovakia between Prague Spring and the Velvet Revolution

Sian Edwards (Winchester): “Are you a Green Guide?” Conservation, Environmentalism and Citizenship in the British Girl Guide Organisation during the Long 1980s

Coffee

10:45-12:15 Panel 5: Educating Democratic Citizenship between Communitarianism and ‘Neoliberalism’

Chair: Sandra Wenk (Halle)

Wim de Jong (Nijmegen): Citizenship Education in the Netherlands and the Paradox of Paternalism, 1966-2018

Lukas Held (Zurich): Motivational Technology, the Production of the Entrepreneurial Mind, and the Marriage of Capitalism and Democracy in West Germany

12:15-13:00 Conclusive discussion

Conveners:

Till Kössler (Halle)

Phillip Wagner (Halle)

Workshop Venue:

Interdisciplinary Centre for European Enlightenment Studies

Franckeplatz 1, Haus 54

06110 Halle

Germany

Hotel:

Dormero Hotel

Leipziger Str. 76

06108 Halle

Map:

